

Rosie Sorenson has created a loving photo essay book, They Had Me at Meow: Tails of Love from the Homeless Cats of Buster Hollow. It's about Rosie's thirteen years of caring for a colony of feral cats. For every book purchased, Rosie will donate $5.00 to Marin Cat Connection. Rosie hopes that by reading this book people will be inspired to make friends with their neighborhood homeless cats.

Please visit her website, www.theyhadmeatmeow.com <http://www.theyhadmeatmeow.com/> to order your copy. If you pay by credit card, be sure and send Rosie an email at theyhadmeatmeow@aol.com <mailto:theyhadmeatmeow@aol.com> to let her know you just made a purchase from the site and would like the credit to go to MCC. Thanks.
